

Narvik, Norway, 6th November 2018

Welcome to the land of the midnight sun and aurora borealis

Rombak Montessori School is located in Narvik, northern Norway, has the following vacancies: ●
Montessoriteacher in full employment

We are searching for you who: ● are a montessori educated teacher ● wants to inspire children for exploration and learning ● has knowledge and interest of IT ● has educational insight and understanding of children's needs ● is flexible and has good cooperative skills

Wanted qualifications: ● Primary teacher with further education in Montessori theory ● Good Norwegian skills or excellent English skills Individual suitability is emphasized.

We offer: ● Excellent terms ● A good working environment, exciting and varied work tasks and good development opportunities for you as a teacher ● Salary by collective agreement and membership of pension fund ● Good arrangements for further education ● To assist in obtaining housing ● A unique village with amazing scenery by the fjord and enthusiastic residents

Rombak Montessori School is a private primary school that was started in August 2013. The school is approved for up to 46 pupils from the 1st to the 7th grade. The school has 27 pupils and 6 employees in the current school year.

It is located by the Rombaksfjord in Narvik, in close proximity to the sea and the mountain. The school is located 10 km from Narvik city center and the famous ski resort Narvikfjellet. To Harstad / Narvik International Airport there are 65 km.

Application is wanted as soon as possible Application with CV is sent to post@rombakms.no For more information / questions please send an email or contact us by phone to principal Kirsten Wollan, tel. +47 41 62 87 97, optionally board leader Linda Trondsen, tel: +47 99 02 39 99